

Your personal statement is an opportunity to provide us with information on your academic background, relevant experience and motivations for undertaking postgraduate research. It is a chance for you to tell us how you arrived at the decision to apply for a research programme, and what your goals are once

J. J. J. J. J. J.

1. I.

• • • • •

1. 00 1.

. (.

()

We recommend personal statements are between 500-1000 words.

The quality of your research proposal plays a significant factor in our decision on whether to accept you onto a postgraduate research programme.

have have the set of the state of the state of

.

For non-defined research

VALLE SHELL ••. - •- • \.

For defined projects such as funded PhD, MPhil or MRes Studentships, instead of a research proposal please provide a synopsis of not more than 1,500 words which demonstrates:

. I.N. ,